SIXTH STREETS, AT AUCTION.

At 2:30 the signal-gun fired and the procession moved through Main street and out Chapel and Church streets to Elimwood cometery.

After a dirge by the band Commander W. F. Irvine called the gathering to order and prayer was offered and the services of the day took place in the presence of 5,000 people.

THE ORAPION.

Rev. Beverly D. Tucker recited a beautifully tender and touching poem, after which flev. W. G. Starr, D. D., was introduced and lelivered the memorial oration, which was a stirring and masterly production. The cerem-nies closed with the Norfelk Light Artillery Blues firing the usual three volleys and the procession returned to the city.

STAUNTON, VA., June 2.—One of the prettiest weddings of the season was that solemized in the Bapist church here yesterday morning, wasna sies Mary S. Smith, daughter of our worthy townsman, Captain R. W. Smith, was joined in holy wedlock to Mr. William A. Brookes, of this city. At 8:30 the beautiful bride-leaning on the arm of the happy and incky groom, to the som-swelling strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, marched to the chancel. The impressive reremony was rendered by the Rev. Dr. J. S. Uardner, of the Methodist Church.

The levely bride, who has endeared herself to a wide circle of friends by a sterling worth of character, combined with rare beauty, was tastefully robed in a gray broaddon travelling dress, and carried a huge bouquet of La France roses. Mr. Brookes, who roceived many congratulations on his good fortune in securing such a prize, is a valued empleyee of the firm of Barkman & Singer, of this city. After the ceramony the wedding party, with many friends, were driven to the Chesapeake and Onio station, where Mr. and Mrs. Brookes set out on their wedding jannt to Richmend, Washington, and Baltimore, and thence to Winchester, in which latter city they will visit the parents of the groom.

The unbers on the occasion were Messre. J. Walter Mayo, of the Miller Manual-Labor School; Tari H. Powell, Lawis Parrish, and Thomas Brookes, of Winchester, brother to the spots church, as the Methodist church is undergoing such extensive repairs as to make it impossible to use that church at this time.

Mr. Buchanan, of Virginia, in the chair.

The pending amendment was that offered by Mr. Blount, of Georg's, reducing by $2,349,000 the appropriation for transportation by $2,349,000 the appropriation for transportation by railroad routes, and providing that the Postmaster-teneral be authorized to readjust the compensation to be paid after July 1, 1803, for transportation of mail by railroad routes, by reducing the compensation to all railroads for the transportation of mail 10 per cent. from the rate established, on the basis of the average weight fixed and allowed by the act of June 17, 1878.

The amendment was rejected after a desultory detate of two hours' duration. Then Mr. Holman offered an amendment, providing that no part of the money ap ropriated for the transportation of foreign mans shall be expended in the carrying out of any contract made hereafter under the provisions of the act to provide for occan-mail service between the United States and foreign ports. Adopted after some debate.

Mr. Scott, of Illinois, offered an amendment providing that no part of the appropriation for stamped envelopes shall be used to pay for or to furnish stamped envelopes having the names of any business firm, corporation, or advortising device printed tileron, and making it unlawful for the Postmaster-Generalto have requests for the return of letters printed on any envelopes sold by the Post-Office Department; provided, however, that the department may continue to farmish stamped envelopes containing the words "If not delivered within ten days, return to." J. A. GRIGG'S,

I will sell by auction, on the premises, on SATURDAY, JUNE 4, 1892, at 6 ofclock P. M., that TRULY VALUABLE AND MOST DESIRABLE VACANT LOT above referred to, fronting 163 feet 4 inches on the west side of Sixth street, running back 130 feet, and bounded on the south by Byrd street. This is one of the few Lalius VACANT LOTS in the heart of the city, and it is admirably adapted for factory or warehouse uses, as it is not only central in location, but being on the James-River division of the Chesapeake and Ohlo railroad, it is almost certain that a spurtrack can be gotten into the lot.

This is a rare opportunity for securing a fine manufacturing or warehouse site, or it will doubtless prove a speculation to the fortunate buyer, as large lots are rapidly being absorbed, and the stoady demand for them is already causing an appreciable increase in their rental and feesimple values.

TRUSTEE'S AUCTION SALE OF

By N. W. Bowe,

A LARGE NUMBER OF VACANT LOTS

LY-LOCATED PLAN AT THE EAST

AND ARE WITHOUT OBJECTIONABLE FEA-

I will sell on the premises, without limit or re-

THURSDAY, JUNE 9, 1802, at 5 o'cicck P. M., a large number of THOSE VALUABLE, NEAR-BY, AND BEAUTIFUL BUILDING LOTS IN THE PLAN OF FAIR. Anyone desiring a nice lot for a home or for speculative purposes should attend this sale, as the lots are close to the heart of the city, being scarer to the Capitot than Monroe Park, and as the class of buildings being erected in this plan insure-desirable neighbors and an increase is the value of the lots.

GRAND SPECULATION HANDSOME AND VERY VALUABLE

West-End Building Lots. ACREAGE PROPERTY, TO BE OFFERED FIRST IN

OF PARK AVENUE EXTENDING FROM ELM TO CEDAR STREETS.

These Are Choice Lots.

In part execution of a deed of trust duly re-corded in the Chancery Court of the city of Richmond, in Deed-Book 143, C, on page 329, I will sell by public auction, on the premises, on WEDNESDAY, JUNE 8, 1892,

WEDNESDAY, June 8, 1892,
at 6 o'clock P. M., the BEAUTIFUL ATTRACTIVE, AND VALUABLE BUILDING LOTS above referred to, fronting 332 feet on Park avenue and running back 153 feet to Kensington street. This laid lies beautifully and is now in the corporate limits of the city, and as it will doubtless room be improved by the city, it presents an opportuality for buying home sites or first-class and most promising speculative property under circumstances altogether favorable to the purchaser. This is strictly choice property, and should command the attention of the investing public. It will be sold as a whole or in lots to suit, as may seem best at the time of saic.
There is an interest in said land not covered by the deed of trust, but the owner of it will unite in the sale.

TERMS: One third cash, and the residue at six and twelve months for notes with interest added and secured by a deed of trust.

W. K. MATHEWS,
Trustee.

In execution of a deed of trust made by Robert F. Merriss to James Alfred Jones and John A. Meredith, as trustees, bearing date November 13, 1869, and duly recorded, I, as surviving trustee, being thereto required by the creditor secured and in obedience to a decree of the Chancery Court of the city of Richmond, entered March 5, 1891, in the cause of Morriss, trustee, vs. the Virginia State Insurance Company, will sell by auction, on the premises,

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 15, 1892,
at 12 o'clock M., the VALUABLE FARM above referred to, situated in Henrico county, on the east side of the Mechanicsville tumpike, upon which it has a long front, extending back to the Chickahominy river and contaming 836 ACRES, more or less, embracing, besides the excellent highland, a quantity of Chickahominy low-grounds, a large area of the funest truck lands, and a sufficiency of woodland.

The buildings consist of a dwelling with the usual out-buildings and some other settlements, such as tenants' houses, &c.

There are few estates combining more elements of value than this. In the first place, it is a large estate very near to the city of Richmond, on an excellent road, and embracing some of the best trucking land in the county, the soil being similar to that of the notes vegetable section of Hanover county. Then, again, its nearness to a growing city, such as Richmond on is justifies the hope of a very largely-increased value in a few years; and again, it is said to contain inexhausible quantities of the very finest clay for pottery, fire-brick, tiling, &c. CENTRE HILL," THE RESIUDENCE OF THE LATE COLONEL ROBERT B. BOLLING, CONSISTING OF LARGE
AND BEAUTIFUL GROUNDS AND BUILDINGS, IN PETERSBURG, VA., FOR SALE.—
In execution of a decree of the Bustings Court of the city of Petersburg, Va., rendered at the March term, 1891, in the suit of "T. S. Bolling s, Robert B. Bolling's heirs," I shall offer for sale march term, 1831, in the suit of 1.8. Bolding is, Robert B. Bolling's heirs, 'I shall offer for sale publicly, for partition, on at the premises, the above-mentioned PROPERTY, situated in Petersbury, Va. containing between THREE AND POUR ACRES OF LAND, extending from Honry street on the north to an extension of east Tabb street on the south, and from Jefferson stroet on the east to Adams street on the set. The mansion is a SPACIOUS THREE-STORY BRICK BUILD-ING, with twenty-four rooms, including four basement rooms, besides bath-rooms and closets on each floor, and halls, closets, dressing-rooms, pantries, dairies, &c., and there is an uncorgound passinge formerly used to enter the building from Henry street. The mansion has two fronts—on Henry and east Tabb streets, respectively—with a large portico and massive granite steps on each front, and is supplied throughout with gas, city water, and cistern water. There is on the premises a HANISOME THREE-STORY BRICK OFFICE, with six rooms, kitchen, and collar, supplied with city water and fitted with gas-pipes. There are also ample servants a partiments, carriage-house, stables, &c. The shade-trees and chrubbery are abundant and beautiful. Two sides of the square on Jefferson and Adams streets) are enclosed with brick walls. One side (on Henry street) is enclosed with a fine fron fonce, with iron gatef and grante gate-posts and foundation. The soutside is not enclosed. There are two excellent and bold springs, sufficient not only for supplying the mansion with pure water, but a portion of the lower part of the city also by means of pipes. JAMES ALFRED JONES, Surviving Trustee.

TRUSTEES AUCTION SALE OF tution, and it leagues attractive hotel.

Trams: One fourth of purchase-money cash: balance payable in one, two, and three years-equal instalments, with interest from date, and secured by deed of trust on the property; purchaser to keep up insurance on building as further security for purchase-money, and to pay taxes for 1892.
